

Webinar on Public Data Tools and Data Sources: IATI

Websites that use IATI data

All these websites and projects utilise IATI data. This can be in similar, but also different ways.

Website	Description
EU Aid Explorer	Access analysis and infographics. Browse and filter all projects. Uses data from multiple sources, including IATI. See: https://euaidexplorer.ec.europa.eu/
D-Portal	Uses all IATI data, from every publisher. Refreshes every night. Provides country, sector and publisher aggregations. See: http://d-portal.org
COVID-19 Tracker	A website that pulls together any IATI data that uses the COVID-19 guidance, alongside data from the UN Financial Tracking Service (FTS) See: https://covid19.humportal.org/
DevTracker (DFID)	UK government website. Refreshes monthly. Centres on DFID data, but uses partner data. See: https://devtracker.dfid.gov.uk
Open Aid Sida	Sweden government website. Uses Sweden data only. Very visual approach. See: https://openaid.se

Open Aid NL	Netherlands government website. Uses Minbuza data. Provides breakdowns by country, sector and organisation. See: https://www.openaid.nl/
USAID Foreign Aid Explorer	Website tracking major donor contributions, using IATI data See: https://explorer.usaid.gov/donor
Timor Leste Aid Transparency Portal	Country portal that tracks aid in Timor Leste See: https://www.aidtransparency.gov.tl/portal/
Bangladesh AIMS	Aid Information Management System (AIMS) for Bangladesh, which uses IATI data. Click on “Enter as Public” to view See: http://aims.erd.gov.bd/
UNICEF Transparency Portal	Provides analysis and access to UNICEF projects. See: http://open.unicef.org/
UNESCO Transparency Portal	Browse, visualise and search UNESCO projects. See: https://opendata.unesco.org/
AfDB MapAfrica	Visualisation / map of African Development Bank portfolio See: https://www.cordaid.org/en/projects/
Aid Transparency Index	Biennial scrutiny of donor transparency. Places heavy emphasis on quality of data published by IATI data. 2020 index launched June 2020 See: http://ati.publishwhatyoufund.org/
Aidstream	An online data entry tool that allows publishers to enter their information through a simple form, and generate IATI data.

	See: http://www.aidstream.org/
--	--

IATI Standard links

These tools, services and websites encompass the IATI core standard

Service	Description
IATI Standard	Main site of IATI, which includes documentation of the IATI standard (definitions, codelists and other materials.) See: http://iatistandard.org/
IATI Schema	Describes the technical aspects that are placed upon data published to the IATI Standard. See: http://iatistandard.org/schema/
IATI Registry	A data catalogue containing URLs to Activity Files and Organisation Files, published by IATI Publishers. See: http://iatiregistry.org/
IATI Dashboard	Provides statistics, charts and metrics on all available IATI data. Updated nightly. See: http://dashboard.iatistandard.org/
IATI Datastore	Provides a service that gathers all data available via the IATI Registry into a single source for query See: http://datastore.iatistandard.org
IATI Validator	A service to allow people to check their IATI Organisation and Activity files. See: http://validator.iatistandard.org/

