

How can water diplomacy better be integrated into EU international partnerships/ current programming cycle?

- A: More programmes supporting transboundary water cooperation in shared basin as a tool to prevent conflict and migration and promote peace.
- B: More programmes promoting an integrated approach to water resources management
- C: Integrate transboundary aspects even into national water projects/ programmes, where relevant
- D: Promote accession to the two United Nations global Water Conventions
- E: support more basin investment plans