Security Sector Reform

awareness raised, capacities strengthened, legal measures defined) Disarmament, Demobilisation and Reintegration (DDR) is promoted and/or strengthened (e.g. awareness raised, capacities strengthened, strategies developed)

National legal and strategic frameworks / Structural change

Human resources management and learning / Capacity building

Post-conflict and fragile context

Specific objectives - OUTCOMES -objective - IMPACT Legal guarantees of transparency and openness of the security system are enhanced Security institutions are effective, internally coherent and adequately staffed and equpped to Organizational and structural reforms of all relevant security perform their duties; clear separation of military actors' institutions in charge of defence and security are and civilian components of the security system is developed, e.g. the chain of command, internal audit processes ensured and the chain of command is respected and inspection mechanisms are clearly defined Security actors' rules, regulations, structures and processes, including Strengthened internal and external accountabili-Integrated Boarder Management and Customs, are legally defined ty of security sector actors Criminal justice chain, especially with regard to evidence collection, prosecution and detention, is better aligned with international human Security sector is more inclusive, legitimate and rights standards security actors are respected and positively perceived Enhanced crime reporting mechanisms and protection systems for victims and witnesses of crime Security sector is more transparent and open; Formal oversight mechanisms by parliamentary and independent bodies (e.g. court of auditors, public accounts committees, Civil society actors are more involved and better To ensure human represented within the security sector security at individual parliamentary commissions, CSOs) are defined and community level Improved capacities of civil society actors, parliamentary and independent bodies allowing them to participate in security Reduced trafficking of arms, narcotics and sector reform and oversight access to weapons Criteria for recruitment (including vetting procedures and representation of ethnic groups / minorities and women), remuneration, training & promotion of security actors are clearly defined Reduced crime rates related directly to physical Enhanced capacities of security actors on aspects linked to their safety, incl. human trafficking, kidnappings, competencies, duties (ethics and deonteology rules), response protocols, homicides, assaults, armed robberies, SGBV, etc. equipment and infrastructure Anti-trafficking efforts (incl. smuggling of arms and narcotics / human trafficking incl. smuggling of migrants) are strengthened at Enhanced reconciliation and reintegration into the national and local levels (e.g. awareness raised, capacities communities of ex-combatants in post-conflict strengthened, legal measures defined) and fragile context Reduction of Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW) is promoted (e.g.

Related SDGs and Targets

Main impact

16. Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions