

ILO/EC Project
“Monitoring and Assessing Progress on Decent Work (MAP)”

FINAL CONFERENCE

Brussels, 18-19 November 2013

Provisional Agenda

The two-day conference will be organized in three parts:

Part 1. High level development oriented general debate (Monday AM)

- This part will set the context looking at the growing recognition of the role of employment and decent work in development - including in the post-2015 debate - and the importance of a solid methodology to measure and monitor progress. The MAP project outputs can be useful for the current discussions on the post-2015 global development agenda;
- Interventions of ILO (DDG/FO), of the High-level Panel on the 2015-post agenda and the EC (Development Commissioner).

Part 2. Main results of MAP and global methodological + country experience (Monday PM)

- Main results and global methodology on monitoring and assessing progress on decent work developed under the project will be presented (ILO);
- Best practices from selected MAP countries will be shared.

Part 3. Knowledge sharing: regional experience and perspectives (Tuesday AM).

- Regional initiatives on measuring/monitoring decent work: Roundtable with experts from SADC, MERCOSUR, ASEAN, and the European experts group on measuring quality of employment;
- Wrap up on key MAP results: national ownership and actions for sustainability (links to DWCP, national policy frameworks, regional monitoring framework), ILO experts from field Offices and HQ.
