

ILO/EC Project
“Monitoring and Assessing Progress on Decent Work (MAP)”

FINAL CONFERENCE

Brussels, 18-19 November 2013

Hotel Renaissance (Rue du Parnasse 19 1050 Brussels)

Provisional Agenda

The conference will be organized in two parts:

Part 1. High level development oriented general debate (Monday AM)

- This part will set the context looking at the growing recognition of the role of employment and decent work in development - including in the post-2015 debate - and the importance of a solid methodology to measure and monitor progress. The MAP project outputs can be useful for the current discussions on the post-2015 global development agenda;
- Interventions of the EC, the ILO, and the High-level Panel on the 2015-post agenda.

Part 2. Main results of MAP, best practices and actions for sustainability (Monday PM and Tuesday AM)

- Main results and global methodology on monitoring and assessing progress on decent work developed under the project will be presented (ILO);
- Best practices from selected MAP countries will be shared.
- Actions for sustainability at the national and regional level and next steps will be discussed (roundtable): actions for sustainability at the national level and supports from regional institutions; links to national policies and programmes on decent work and how the global methodology can be used/replicated in four regions (Europe, Africa, Latin America, Asia).
