Civil Society (CS): "the wide array of non-governmental and not-for-profit organizations that have a presence in public life, expressing the interests and values of their members or others, based on ethical, cultural, political, scientific, religious or philanthropic considerations. Example organisations: community groups, NGOs, unions, indigenous groups, charitable & faith-based organisations, professional associations, and foundations." The World Bank

CS role should be about creating the needed environments to address the following:

Access
- Affordability
- Equity
- Build on what is there

Governance
- Appropriate Structures
- Ownership Finance
- Community Engagement

Delivery
- Public / Private Sector
- Templates to inform
- Support Local chain

Professor AbuBakr S Bahaj, Energy and Climate Change Division / Sustainable Energy Research Group
University of Southampton, Southampton, SO17 1BJ, United Kingdom

UNIVERSITY OF
Southampton

Civil Society (CS): "the wide array of non-governmental and not-for-profit organizations that have a presence in public life, expressing the interests and values of their members or others, based on ethical, cultural, political, scientific, religious or philanthropic considerations. Example organisations: community groups, NGOs, unions, indigenous groups, charitable & faith-based organisations, professional associations, and foundations." The World Bank

CS role should be about creating the needed environments to address the following:

Bearing in mind that:

Access	Governance	Delivery

But rural communities are not connected communities – so difficult to galvanise their engagement and identify impacts

Finance

To support such communities there is a need to mobilise at local, national and global levels

Professor AbuBakr S Bahaj, Energy and Climate Change Division / Sustainable Energy Research Group
University of Southampton, Southampton, SO17 1BJ, United Kingdom