“Economic Interaction between Refugees and Host in Uganda.”

Rama Dasi Mariani

Roma Tre University, Rome

I am Associate Professor of Economics at the Department of Law (Roma Tre University). I am fellow at the Global Labor Organization, and at the Centre for Economic and International Studies. I am also member of the Inequality in Rome Research Group.

I earned the Ph.D. in Economics from Sapienza University of Rome in 2018 and there I spent my first year of postdoc. Thereafter, I moved to the University of Rome Tor Vergata for a postdoctoral period of three years.

My research interests focus on the economics of migration, international economics, and labor economics, which I study mainly, but not exclusively, with an empirical approach.
