How should the EU step up its efforts to achieve Policy Coherence for Development (or policy coherence for sustainable development)?

- There is some work to be done
- SDGs at the centre of the policy coherence
- Importance of monitoring and accountability

Global PFD

Brussels, 16th March 2016

How should the EU strengthen its partnerships with civil society, foundations, the private sector, parliaments and local authorities and academia to support the implementation of the 2030 Agenda (including the Addis Ababa Action Agenda) through its development policy? How can the Policy Forum for Development best contribute?

- Implementation of the 2012 Communications
- Ensure internal coherence at DEVCO/EEAS
- Capacity building of EU delegations and their partners
