Joint Programming - State of Play by country

work in progress – situation as of January 2017

Prep	16	•Feasibility and Scop •Afghanistan, Algeria Tanzania, Ukraine, I	a, Bangladesh, Cameroon, CAR, Guinea Conakry, Jordan, Liberia, Libya, Madagascar, Somalia, Tajikistan, steps	14	<ul> <li>Countries with Roadmaps</li> <li>Azerbaijan, Benin, El Salvador, Georgia, Haiti, Honduras, Kyrgyzstan, Lebanon, Malawi, Mauritania, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, Tunisia</li> </ul>
	6	•Countries with Joint Analysis • Armenia, Belarus*, Burkina Faso*, Egypt, Moldova, Morocco*
loint Strategy —	20	<ul> <li>Countries with Joint Strategy (joint analysis and response)</li> <li>Bolivia (2016), Cambodia (2014), Chad (2014), Comoros (2015), Ethiopia (2013), Ghana (2014), Guatemala (2013), Kenya (2015), Laos (2016), Mali (2014), Myanmar (2014), Namibia (2014), Nicaragua*, Niger*, Palestine*, Paraguay (2015), Rwanda (2014), Senegal (2014), Togo (2016), Uganda (2015)</li> </ul>
		11	•Joint Monitoring / Results Framework •Bolivia, Cambodia, Comoros, Ethiopia, Kenya, Laos, Mali, Myanmar, Nicaragua, Palestine, Rwanda
56 Active countries *drafts		7	<ul> <li>Replacement</li> <li>FR in Comoros, FR in Kenya, EU in Laos, DE and FR in Mali, EU in Palestine, EU in Senegal</li> </ul>
		5 7	<ul> <li>Second cycle of Joint Programming</li> <li>Bolivia, Ethiopia, Ghana, Laos, Mali, Namibia, Senegal</li> </ul>

** "Second cycle" refers to the process of thoroughly revising the Joint Strategy or producing a whole new document