

PROTECTION KEY OUTCOME INDICATOR

Key Outcome Indicator (KOI)	Definition/Description	Source/Method of Verification
% of persons/target population in a given context reporting an improved feeling of safety and dignity by the end of the intervention compared to at the beginning	In the comments field: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Safety and dignity to be defined and qualified in each context based on the elements identified in the risk analysis – this could be improved freedom of movement; reduced level of violence; better access to services, livelihoods, etc. This requires a solid baseline around questions best qualifying safety and dignity in that particular context to be established at the start of the intervention, and measured again at the end of the intervention. In order to cope with attribution the people interviewed should also be able to mention at least X [X to be defined at proposal stage] activities of the action that contributed to improve safety and dignity;</li> <li>2) Provide absolute numbers;</li> <li>3) Disaggregate numbers by age and sex.</li> </ol>	[Adjust/specify as necessary and justified] Baseline and end-line survey with at least 5% statistically accurate representative sample of population;

PROTECTION MAINSTREAMING INDICATORS AT OUTCOME LEVEL

Key Outcome Indicator (KOI)	Definition/Description & Source/Method of Verification	Indicator Registry link
% of beneficiaries (disaggregated by sex, age and diversity) reporting that humanitarian assistance is delivered in a safe, accessible and participatory manner	Initial definition of quality services for the sector (use of international guidelines) Initial survey Quality survey on services provided Log/Register of complaints or feedback provided and acted upon	AAP-1; AAP-2; AAP-3; P-15; P1-PC2-1; P1-PC3-1; P2-PG6-3
% of activities that incorporate principles of meaningful access, safety and dignity through a community participatory approach	Report of participatory consultation sessions Review of activities – according to a defined and approved understanding Protocol for monitoring with the community members	AAP-1; AAP-2; AAP-3; P-15; P1-PC2-1; P1-PC3-1; P2-PG6-3