

Key Evaluation Questions for the TOR

- To what extent has the initiative effected changes in policy and practice which directly affect children's rights realization?
- To what extent has the initiative effected changes in equity and non-discrimination for children?
- To what extent has the initiative effected changes in child participation?
- To what extent has the initiative effected changes in civil society and community capacity to support children/child rights?
- To what extent has the initiative impacted upon changes in child rights realisation and well-being